

S. S. S. GOES TO THE BOTTOM.

Promptly Reaches the Seat of all Blood Diseases and Cures the Worst Cases.

In every test made S. S. S. easily demonstrates its superiority over other blood remedies. It matters not how obdurate the case, nor what other treatment or remedies have failed, S. S. S. always promptly reaches and cures any disease where the blood is in any way involved. Everyone who has had experience with blood diseases knows that there are no ailments so real, deep-seated blood diseases as S. S. S. cures, and none can offer such incontrovertible evidence of merit. S. S. S. is not merely a tonic—it is a cure! It goes down to the very seat of all blood diseases, and gets at the foundation of the very worst cases, and routs the poison from the system. It does not, like other remedies, dry up the poison and hide it from view temporarily, only to break forth again more violently than ever; S. S. S. forces out every trace of taint, and rids the system of it forever.

Mrs. T. W. Lee, Montgomery, Ala., writes: "Some years ago I was inoculated with poison by a nurse who infected my babe with blood taint. I was covered with sores and ulcers from head to foot, and in my great extremity I prayed to die. Several prominent physicians treated me, but all to no purpose. The mercury and potash which they gave me seemed to add fuel to the awful flame which was devouring me. I was advised by friends who had seen wonderful cures made by it, to try Swift's Specific. I improved from the start, as the medicine seemed to go direct to the cause of the trouble and force the poison out. Twenty bottles cured me completely." Swift's Specific—

HEROES IN THE LAND PARADE

Second Spectacle of the Dewey Celebration Saturday.

THE OLYMPIA'S SAILORS LEAD.

Form a Guard of Honor for the Carriage Containing the Admiral and Mayor Van Wyck—Sixteen States Represented in the Procession.

Before the eyes of a countless host passed the great land parade of the Dewey celebration in New York, on Saturday, Sept. 30th.

The parade started from Grant's tomb at 11 a. m. It formed in the avenue and cross streets east of Riverside drive, between One Hundred and Fourteenth street on the south, One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street on the north and Columbus avenue on the extreme west.

The troops were forming while Admiral Dewey was on his way by boat from the foot of Warren street to Claremont. He reached the latter point at 10:30, and half an hour was consumed in placing the guests and their escorts in carriages in the proper order.

Olympia's Men Led. There were 2,000 sailors and marines in line. The men of the Olympia were at the head of the column, marching directly in front of the four-horse carriage containing Admiral Dewey and the mayor. Sousa's band of 130 pieces, the finest marching band ever got together, furnished the music for the Olympia's tars.

In the naval division were the officers and men who destroyed Cervera's fleet off Santiago and Montefiore's fleet in Manila bay.

In the two carriages immediately following the admiral were four of Dewey's captains at Manila—Coghlan, Wildes, Dyer and Lamberton. Every branch of the service was represented in the 2,000 troops forming the regular army division, including the West Point cadets.

Practically the entire strength of the national guard of New York, 15,000 men, were in line, with Gov. Theodore Roosevelt riding at their head, squadron A acting as his special escort.

Fifteen other states had 10,000 men in line. The visiting troops marched in the order of the admission of their states to the union—namely: Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Georgia, Connecticut, Maryland, South Carolina, North Carolina, Ohio, Indiana, Missouri, Maine, Florida and Texas.

Famous military organizations which have done much to give lustre to the American army were in line, also the younger veterans, who gave it new glory during the war with Spain.

ADMIRAL RECEIVES HIS MEDAL. Grateful Words from the Recipient of All Unprecedented Honors.

New York, Sept. 30.—Admiral Dewey made the longest speech of his life when he responded to Mayor Van Wyck's welcome to New York. He said: "Mr. Mayor and Gentlemen—Of course it would be needless for me to attempt to make a speech, but my heart appreciates all that you have said.

"How it is that you have overrated my work so much I cannot understand. It is beyond anything I can conceive of why there should be such an uprising of the country. I simply did what any naval captain in the service would have done, I believe."

"Admiral," said Mayor Van Wyck, "no tongue can ever utter or pen write an overestimate of what you did for your country. The city of New York has made to commemorate this reception to you, the hero of the Spanish-American war, a badge, a facsimile of which they desire I should present to you in commemoration of the event."

"How magnificent, how beautiful, how splendid!" exclaimed Admiral Dewey as he received the medal. "Oh, that is too beautiful! (Calls Chinese attendant.) Now pla that there, sir, so it won't drop off."

Col. John Jacob Astor was the richest man in the procession. He rode at the head of the Manhattan regiment of Spanish war veterans.

No parade that ever marched in this city has marched over a route so magnificently decorated as are the thoroughfares through which the procession passed. The nearest approach to the festival dress of the city was during the Washington centennial celebration of ten years ago.

A temporary arch, since perpetuated, was erected for that event in Washington Square, but this structure in elaborateness of detail and magnificence of adornment fell far short of the splendid creation in the shadow of which Admiral Dewey reviewed the parade at Madison Square.

To perpetuate the Washington arch cost $225,000. The sculptural work alone on the Dewey triumphal arch has an estimated value of $400,000, all contributed gratis by the members of the National Sculpture society. No such monument as this was ever erected in any country for merely temporary purposes.

In six hours the troops passed under it and then the direct object for which it was built was achieved.

From Thirty-fourth street to the northern colonnade of the arch at Twenty-sixth street the troops passed through an aisle of magnificently decorated triumphal pillars, as beautiful in their way as the arch to which they led.

Behind all the others came 1,200 of the host who fought the battles of '61-'65, most of them union veterans, a few confederates—the former under the old one-armed warrior, Gen. O. O. Howard; the latter under Gen. Roger A. Pryor.

Most inspiring of all was the scene when the admiral's carriage turned from Seventy-second street into Central Park west. Banked high on a stand against the park wall were 2,200 school children in blue and white so arranged as to spell the word "Dewey," and when the admiral appeared the little ones sang in unison, "See, the Conquering Hero Comes."

The only special halt in the parade was made at this point to give the admiral a few minutes to see and hear the little ones.

Entertainment for Crew.

The men behind the guns of the Olympia had their particular innings in the celebration at night at the Waldorf-Astoria, and if they happened to be weary after marching in the long parade, the smoker, buffet, lunches and vaudeville performance arranged for their enjoyment were doubly attractive.

There were 450 jacks at the smoker, 250 from the Olympia, twenty-five each from the ships in Sampson's squadron, the New York, Brooklyn, Massachusetts and Texas, and seventy-five from all the other navy vessels in the parade.

The smoker began at 8 o'clock, and the lunch, which was really something more, was served the first thing.

Dewey Day at Santiago, Cuba.

Santiago de Cuba, Sept. 30.—The Americans in Santiago de Cuba celebrated "Dewey day" Friday. The government buildings and the residences of Americans were gayly decorated. There was a miniature naval parade of yachts and tugs, together with a general blowing of whistles and discharging of cannon crackers. In the evening an elaborate display of fireworks was carried out on lighters in the harbor.

The Cubans did not, however, join in the celebration. They are inclined to resent Admiral Dewey's reported statement that the Filipinos are more capable of self-government than the Cubans.

Shaw Asks Dewey to Chicago.

New York, Sept. 30.—Commander-in-Chief Albert D. Shaw of the G. A. R. has invited Admiral Dewey to be the guest of honor at the thirty-fourth national encampment of the organization which will be held in Chicago in September. It is his intention to send later an engrossed invitation on vellum, signed by the officers of each state department of the G. A. R., bound in oak on the Olympia, and with an inscription engraved on a piece of Span shell that struck the flagship.

Dewey's Opinion of the Day.

New York, Sept. 30.—Admiral Dewey gave out the following official statement after the parade: "The reception today surpassed anything I had expected. It was wonderful. I never saw so many people gathered together in one spot in all my life before. Of course I am deeply touched—more than I can express. It is the greatest day of my life."

Washington, Oct. 2.—Secretary Gage has asked the attorney general for a legal opinion regarding the authority of the secretary of the treasury to purchase silver bullion for the purpose of increasing the volume of subsidiary coin.
